Had a big life change?

You may be able to sign up for health insurance with a Special Enrollment Period.

What is a Special Enrollment Period?

A Special Enrollment Period is a time, other than Open Enrollment, when you can sign up for health insurance through HealthCare.gov. You only get a Special Enrollment Period if you experience a major life change. And you only get 60 days after the life change happens to enroll in a health plan.

Which life changes qualify?

Some of the most common qualifying life changes are:

- Losing your health insurance, such as through a layoff
- Moving to a new zip code or county
- Getting married or divorced
- Having a baby, adopting or becoming a foster parent
- Having a change in immigration status
- Turning 26 and aging off your parents' health insurance

How do you apply for health insurance if you had one of these life changes?

Visit HealthCare.gov and follow instructions to see if you can enroll for 2019 coverage.

Or, call HealthCare.gov at 1-800-318-2596.
(TTY 1-855-889-4325).
